THE CIVIL RIGHTS SOCIAL EQUALITY BILL.

A New Deal on the Finance Bill.

Army Reduction—Vote of Censure.

WASHINGTON, D. C. May 21.—Speeches were made to-day on the civil rights

SOCIAL EQUALITY BILL.

by Messrs. Flanagan of Texas, Pratt of Indiana, and Thurman of Ohio. Mr. Flanagan spoke simply because he had been goaded thereto by the irony of Senator Norwood in his late speech, and there was nothing worthy about his harangue except his preliminary gesture of blowing his nose with his fingers. After this lovely apposite of negro equality had subsided, Mr. Pratt exhorted to the same tune and in a manner equally dull. Judge Thurman delivered a very strong constitutional, legal argument in opposition to the measure which enlisted the close attention of the prominent Republican lawyers of the senate. He cited the decision in the slaughter house case by the supreme court of the United States and the opinion of the state supreme court of Ohio upon the mixed school question with much force. But no amount of argument could avail anything now. The Republican cause has been driven by the negro-and-mulatto pressure to this fatal ship, and they felt that if they hesitate now they will lose their support. Their conduct is well-known to democratic senators to be entirely hypocritical.

For years they have evaded passing this bill until they feel that the issue can not longer be evaded. It was not today. A last five democratic senators were absent from their seats, one of whom was detained by illness. The bill will pass the senate certainly, and probably the house also. It declares that negroes shall be entitled to the full and equal enjoyment of the accommodations, advantages, facilities, and privileges of inns, public conveyances on land or water, theaters and other places of public amusement, and also of common schools and public institutions of learning or benevolence, supported in whole or in part by general taxation, and of cemeteries to be supported, and punishes any denial of such equal facilities with fine and imprisonment by the federal courts. Judge Thurman construed this section as enforcing a mixture and mingling of the white and black. With this bill and other judicial machinery, there is no limit to the power of the president to establish a reign of terror in any state, especially in the south, in order to secure a re-election.

SEVERE BATTLE NEAR BILBOA.

The Ministerial Crisis in France.

FRANCE.

PARIS, May 21.—The ministerial crisis continues. The only progress made today was an agreement between President MacMahon and the Right Center that no Bonapartists should be called to the cabinet, which excluded Bligny.

London, May 21.—The "Daily News" speaks from Paris saying a cabinet has been formed. Its principal members are Gouraud, DeCasse, La Vergne, Grivot and Cauzanne, all of whom belong to the moderate section of the Right and Right Center. The object of the new government is to conciliate both centers in order to carry the septennial constitution through the assembly.

SPAIN.

MADRID, May 21.—Severe skirmishes between the Republicans and the Carlists occurred yesterday in the neighborhood of Bilbao. The Carlists attacked and were repulsed with a heavy loss. Thirty Carlists were captured. The Republicans lost 100 killed and wounded.

The Carlists, on the other hand, report that the Republicans lost 500 men in the action, which took place at Canabriga.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, May 21.—Advice from Madrid states that the vines are in a satisfactory condition.

The Azores newspapers deny the existence in the islands of a movement in favor of annexation to the United States.

The protracted ock-out of farm laborers in Lincolnshire has ended by a settlement, which will probably be adopted in other agricultural districts of England.

THE DOMINION.

OTTAWA, May 21.—The Canadian Pacific railway bill was read a third time and passed in the house last night. His bill to prevent a maritime telegraph monopoly has passed the senate.

CUBA.

HAVANA, May 21.—The schooner Phœnix capsized in a whirlwind off Ship Channel keys. Out of 17 passengers, 5 women and 1 man were drowned.

South Carolina.

Governor Moses Refuses to be Arrested.

CHARLESTON, May 21.—The statement that Governor Moses, last night, submitted to arrest turns out to be incorrect. He had concluded to yield, and sent his carriage for an officer empowered to make the arrest, but at the last moment changed his mind and again refused to be arrested. This morning he obtained a warrant for the arrest of the Orangeburg sheriff, on a charge of attempting illegally to arrest the governor. At the sheriff's left Column Hill. Orangeburg, this morning, the state solicitor reported the governor's resistance to arrest, and inquired what steps to take to enforce its authority. The court replied that for the present it did not see its way to a successful fight with the state militia, and further action would be held under advisement.

FINANCE.

Mr. Blaine has been as busy as a bee for days endeavoring to bring members over to his idea of a so-called compromise on the finance question, and succeeded in capturing Messrs. Farwell and Merriman, of the banking and currency committee. This committee to-day agreed to amend the senate amendments so as to provide for retaining forty per cent of the greenback circulation upon every million of additional bank note circulation. This was carried by 6 to 5. Those voting were Messrs. Durham, Randall, Hunter, Maynard and Hubbard. Messrs. Mitchell and Farwell voted with the eastern members. The committee also agreed to strike out the clause requiring the banks to retain in their vaults one-quarter of the coin received as interest on bonds deposited, and also to strike out the clause providing that the banks to keep their reserves at home. This is a strong influence being exerted by prominent Republicans to bridge the chasm between congress and the president by adapting this mode of adjustment but the real opinion now is that the house will reject the recommendations of the banking and currency committee and next agree to the bill, as it was passed by the senate, in the shape proposed by the committee. The bill will get very few, if any, Democratic votes in either branch of congress.
